

free admission

celtic taste of carlow

at the potato market/liberty tree,
kennedy avenue, carlow town

saturday 22nd april 2017 9am - 6pm

sunday 23rd april 2017 12pm - 6pm

Photo ©Dublin Regional Tourism Authority

the potato market/liberty tree,
kennedy avenue, carlow town

local artisan food market | craft market | craft beer marquee*

food demonstrations with leading national and local chefs

including Derry Clarke, Kevin Dundon and Robert White

music and entertainment | kids programme

make and do, face painting and carousels

*subject to licence

celtic taste of carlow

saturday 22nd & sunday 23rd april potato market, carlow town

Celebrating the International Pan Celtic Festival, the Celtic Taste of Carlow is an indoor and outdoor market showcasing the best of local and national food and craft producers. This special celebration will host marvellous artisan food displays, craft brews, hand crafted gifts and passionate producers. Meet our Celtic neighbours from Cornwall, Isle of Man, Scotland and Brittany and enjoy sampling some of the delicious Celtic foods and listening to their wonderful music and song.

food demonstration marquee

– kindly sponsored by Carlow Farmers Market –

saturday, 22nd april 2017

12 noon	Robert White, Clashganny House Restaurant, Borris – Spicy Irish lamb dishes!
1pm	Keith Kenny, Boardwalk Restaurant, Carlow town – Dishes for the gluten and dairy intolerant.
2pm	Derry Clarke, L'Ecrivain – How to cook the perfect steak!
3pm	Anne Neary, Ryeland House, Kilkenny – Luxurious breakfast delights, delicious morning, noon or night!
4pm	Derry Clarke, L'Ecrivain – Dishes every home cook should master.
5pm	Watch the team from the Forge Restaurant, Ballon – Home cooking made easy using local produce.

craft beer marquee*

Visit the Craft Beer Marquee and enjoy some of the finest local brews including O'Hara's and 12 Acres amongst others, all using the highest quality ingredients with no preservatives or chemicals. Meet the brewers behind the brands in the welcoming atmosphere of the Carlow Craft Beer Marquee, featuring music each day.

Open Saturday at 11am & Sunday at 12 noon

*subject to licence

sunday, 23rd april 2017

12 noon	Shane Smith, Sunday AM, TV3 – Chocolate Paradise, baking gorgeous chocolate desserts!
1pm	Tom and Jennie Coleman, My Nutrition – Healthy eating and nutritious recipes.
2pm	Kevin Dundon, Dunbrody House – Appetising meals based on his latest Back to Basics cookbook.
3pm	Bernadine Mulhall, Coolanowle House and Organic Farm, Ballickmoyler – Homemade delicious bread and scones.
4pm	Kevin Dundon, Dunbrody House – Relaxed recipes for weekend cooking!
5pm	Tom Burgess, Coolatin Cheddar – Cheese making demonstration.

free activities for children

Face Painting – FREE

Make and Do Workshops – make the flags and emblems of the Pan Celtic countries and lots more – FREE

Family and Children Storytelling – FREE

SPONSORED BY

