Glasheen Christmas Lights

The residents of Glasheen Kildavin have brought the true spirit of Christmas to the village. They have created a virtual Christmas wonderland in the estate with people coming from far and near. Donations from visitors go to a very worthy Charity. Check out their Facebook page Glasheen Christmas Lights .

Christmas at Huntington Castle – each weekend until Christmas Saturday and Sunday

Open each weekend in November and December until Christmas (11 a.m. – 4 p.m.) for house and garden tours and estate walks. After your visit take a well-earned break in the beautiful tea rooms, selling a full range of goodies and gifts which make an ideal gift or stocking filler. Walk the fields and select your own top class Christmas tree or pick a pre-cut tree from the courtyard.

Interesting Facts????

Cromwell's invasion of Ireland in the 1650s saw his troops march through Clonegal, where they met with significant opposition. The battle of Clonegal as it became known is reputed to have been so fierce, that the river Derry ran red with the blood of the fallen and Cromwell's troops were able to march dry footed across the river on their corpses
