Congratulations.

Kim and Bernadette Sheill from Clonegal made National headlines this week when uniquely the mother and daughter team, both graduated from I.T Carlow with a master's in Child Youth and Family studies. Their unique achievement was featured on the Irish Independent and the girls were interviewed on The Ian Dempsey Show. Kim is a valued member of Kildavin Clonegal Ladies Junior Football team and Bernie her mother, one of its most committed supporters.

Music at St Mary's Bunclody:

Hazel Moulton organist at St Mary's Church Bunclody gives a recital every Saturday at 2pm. Admission is free.

Interesting Facts.

Anyone who drives over or past the bridge outside Kildavin on their way two or from Clonegal on the Wexford side of the river will notice a stone monument with the opening inscription Gate Of Tears (Geata Na nDeor). The monument marks the place where before the bridge and this road existed the river Derry was crossed by means of a ford located at the end of a lane that came over Drumderry Hill. Here emigrants from Clonegal parish had their last view of their native valley and the Wicklow Hills, here too they made their final goodbye to their relatives.
