Our community grieves the loss of a member of a well-known and respected family. Pat Breen of Carrhill was interred in Kildavin cemetery on Friday January 21st. We offer our deepest sympathy to his family and friends and may his soul rest in peace.

Interesting Facts???? St Brigid's day approaches. The following is an extract submitted by Kildavin N.S in the 1930s as part of an essay by James Lyons and collected by Mrs Kelly Drumderry who is described as a 73-year-old farmers wife. "Another custom is to visit a blessed well in Kilbranish. The well is beside the Clody. There is an ash - tree growing in the shape of a fork and the well is in the fork of the tree. It is visited every year by the people of that district" Available on duchas.ie Schools Collection
