This week in the Spellman Hall Kildavin Pauline O Toole Solicitor will talk to you about making your will and all of the attendant legal pitfalls. This is the third in a series of information evenings held by the Veteran Players. Pauline's talk will be followed by a question and answer session and a cup of tea and a chat.

Still to Come

On March 29th St Brigid's Hall Clonegal and April 5th Spellman Hall Kildavin all at 8pm. Michael Kealy will introduce you to the benefits and dangers of technology and show you how to access podcasts so you can all listen to the community podcast being launched later in the year. All events are free. They are funded by Carlow County Council. April 12th will see a night of entertainment for all who participated in these evenings and their friends and neighbours.

House of Song and Story is Back: After a long absence the House of Song and story returns to Osbornes Clonegal on Tuesday March 22nd at 8pm. It will continue on the fourth Tuesday of every month from now on.

Corrections:

Two of our contributors have advised us that incorrect information was provided for last week's Newsletter.

The Carlow Historical and Archaeological Society advised of a Talk on the Brigidine Nuns in Mount Wolsely on May 16th, they subsequently advised that the date should have read March 16th. So unfortunately, those interested have missed it. However, the society regularly runs interesting talks and we will pass on any information we receive. In the meantime, if you are interested in their activities visit <https://carlowhistorical.com/>

House of Song & Story: The House of Song and Story recommences in Osbornes Clonegal this Tuesday March 22nd and the fourth Tuesday of every month thereafter and not the third as originally advised.

Census Enumerators are delivering census forms. The census is taking place on Sunday, 3 April 2022. Census enumerators are calling to every home in your area to deliver census forms from now up to census date. Enumerators can help with any queries that you may have. Please ask to see their ID badge when they call. Census enumerators will not enter your home. The census is carried out by the Central Statistics Office (CSO). Visit the website census.ie for more information and you will also find our contact details if you wish to contact the census office.
