Podcasts Galore

On April 5th in the Spellman Hall Kildavin at 8pm the Veteran Players information evening will introduce you to the world of Podcasts. Podcasts allow you to listen in to discussions in any area you are interested in, on your phone lap top IPAD or tablet. If your interest is sport, current affairs, history, crime, yoga, meditation, literature, economics, comedy or a myriad of other things you will find a podcast on it. So come along and find out how to listen in and when the Veteran Players launches its community podcast at the end of the year you will be able to listen in to local people talking about local events and local issues.

Change of Venue

The Veteran Players Entertainment night on Tuesday April 12th is moving from St Brigid's Hall Clonegal where we have enjoyed tremendous support to the larger Spellman Hall Kildavin to accommodate the large number of entertainers who have expressed an interest in taking part and the audience we hope will be able to come to enjoy them. We hope to be back for future events in St Brigid's Hall
