Remembering Fr. Jimmy Doyle

A Book based on the life of the late Fr. Jimmy Doyle of Craan, who was much loved and respected in this community will be available at the end of November.

All associated with Clonegal N.S. were saddened to learn of the death of a much-loved former teacher, Mrs Kelly. Originally from Belfast Anne Browne as she is now known lived in Wexford town. Our deepest Sympathy to her family and friends. May she rest in Peace

Kildavin Clonegal GAA Club plans to re-open our Gym Facility on Monday, November 01st 2021, (subject to compliance with Government & GAA rules in place on this date).

Anyone wishing to join to use the Gym Facility needs to Register with us for the first time or Re-Register with us if you have been a previous member.

Anyone who had pre-paid for Gym Membership before we were forced to close in March 2020 (due to the imposition of restrictions to deal with the Covid-19 Pandemic) can return their existing Gym Card and outline their claim for a refund from the Club. Their claim will be assessed and any refunds due will be reimbursed.

Details regarding Registration for the first time or Re-Registration as follows:-

- Prospective members need to come to pre-defined registration nights (dates below) and bring the following items:-
  - A passport size photograph (one for each proposed member)
  - A colour copy of Photo ID with proof of age, ideally a Passport or a Drivers Licence
  - A paper copy of proposed member's EU Covid Certificate
  - A total of €15 in cash or cheque - €5 for Club Social Membership for the year 2021 plus €10 as deposit for your Gym Card. (Club Social Membership for the full year of 2022 will be €20).
- The Gym & Social Membership Application Requirements & Payment Details Form must be completed
- Different Payment Options are available for Gym Use, but payments will only be accepted by Standing Order from November 01st 2021.

- Standing Order Payments are to be made on the 01st of each month, in advance.
- Membership will commence on the first of the month selected.
- Gym Induction must be completed and signed off on before Gym usage can commence. Pre-defined dates / times when Induction courses are being run will be outlined to prospective members at Registration.
- Only those who have reached 18 years of age are permitted to join the Gym and permitted to use it unaccompanied.
- Those who have reached 16 years of age are only permitted to use the Gym as part of a Supervised training session with their club / group supervisor present.
- Accepted Members must at all times fully comply with the Rules of our Gym Facility, which are subject to change from time to time.
