Interesting Facts:!!!! This week we celebrate St, Brigid's Day. Brigid is the name of a Celtic Goddess and Christian saint, both of whose feast days are on February 1st. In Celtic tradition, this is one of four quarter days, heralding a new season.

In Christian tradition Brigid is the patron saint of babies, blacksmiths, boatmen, cattle farmers, children whose parents are not married, children whose mothers are mistreated by the children's fathers, Clan Douglas, dairymaids, dairy workers, fugitives, Ireland, Leinster, mariners, midwives, milkmaids, nuns, poets, the poor, poultry farmers, poultry raisers, printing presses, sailors, scholars, travelers, and watermen.
